Dear Jackie,
You're a very sweet girl; My association with you these past three years have been most enjoyable.
May you always find happiness and success;
Love,
Mrs. Lomann

The 1953 Larenim

Mineral Springs High School Winston-Salem, North Carolina

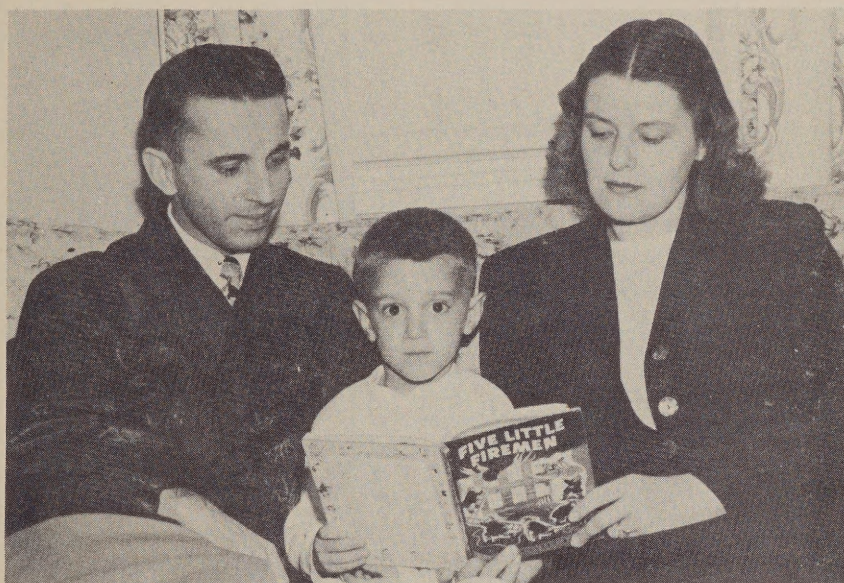

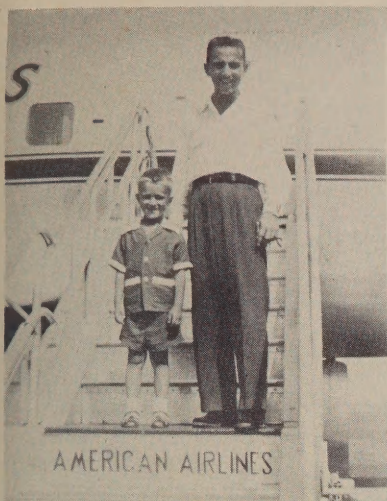

Foreword

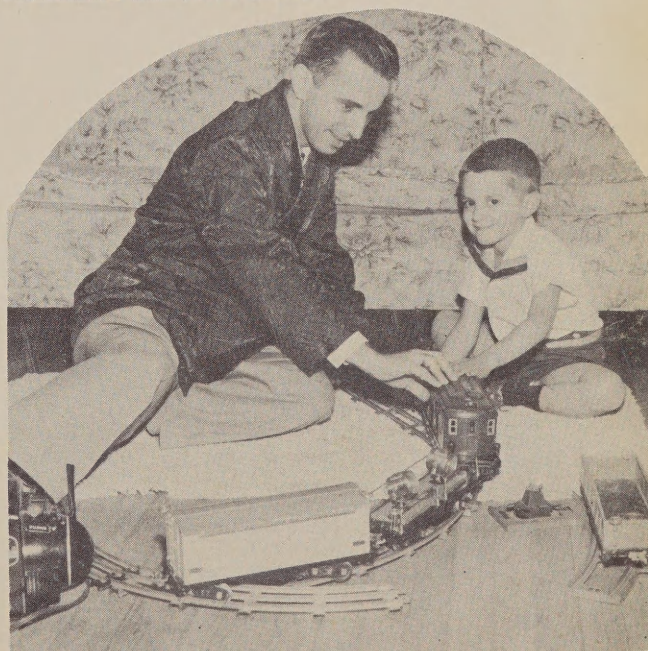

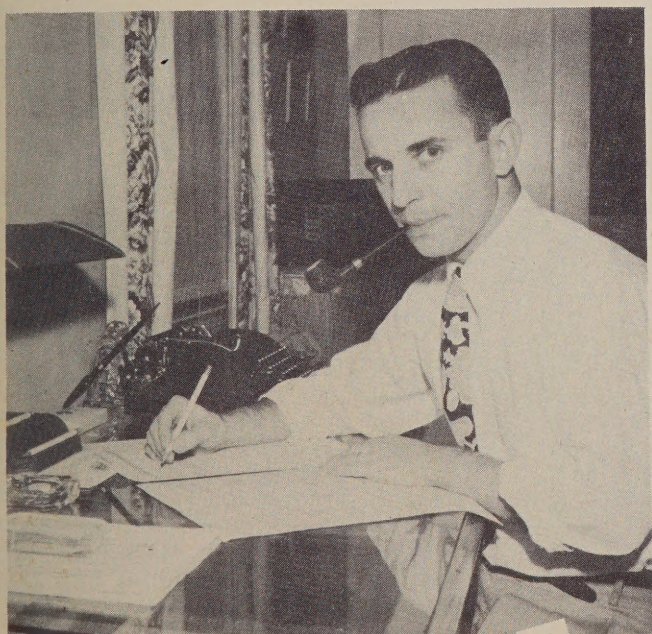

Up! Ho! Ho! and—here it is, after much sweat, ink, and glue—your 1953 "Larenim." The staff sincerely hopes that you will find this book to be a treasure chest full of memories of this school year. So let's hoist the Jolly Roger, raise the gang plank, and sail for M.S.H.S....

To MR. ROY H. MILLIGAN whose friendly smile, congenial nature, and everlasting perseverance have been embedded in the mind of every student, we, the Seniors of Mineral Springs High School, dedicate this 1953 issue of "Larenim."

CLASS PROPHECY

Have you ever thought of our class so bold?
In twenty years, what positions shall they hold?
Let's take a trip in our time machine,
Made by Professors Doug Sharp and Edward Bean.
We would land on New York Square,
But Mayor Ronnie Rau prohibits us there.
We shall go to the home of Don Shamel and Larry Hancock, leaders of the band
That is famous over all of the land.
They are now appearing in the play "My Friend the Jester," Starring Norma Wilkes, Pat Matthews and Bettie Lester.
As we land we find photographer Dick Wells jolly-on-the-spot,
To get of us and our machine a shot,
For his paper, the New York News,
Headed by Editor Jimmy Matthews.
We now learn that Reitzel Snider, the famous engineer,
Is on his way to examine our machine here.
With him are his secretaries Shirley Puckett and Lola Proctor.
Also along are the famous doctors,
Who are Bob Boles and James McGee,
Able to patch you up for a small fee!
We shall leave the machine at the garage of Bill Davis and Tommy Daye,
Then we shall be on our way.
Jim Doss, Richard and Robert Dixon, owners of the D.D.D. Auto Co., will rent us a car,
So we can head for a night club and bar,
Which we find is owned by none other than Bill Bailey,
Who shows us around laughingly and gaily!
Working here are Peggy Dymott, Peggy Hoskins, Yvonne Taylor and Jo Ann West,
Who are considered among chorus girls the best.
Next door is a restaurant owned by Jim George and Wilma Moore,
Who greet us happily at the door.
The chefs, Sharon Allen and Peggy Swink,
Cook us a meal which really does stink;
It must be the odor from the glue factory, owned by Cecil Walker.
Close to the glue works a picture, "The Prince and the Pauper,"
Is showing, with Sarah Robertson, Mary Lewis Smith and Pat Page as the stars,
Who have won fame, both near and far.
Produced by Perry Turner and Peggy Long,
It is gay and full of song.
Next we shall watch Bill Bovender, Don Larimore and Ronnie Easter, Players of pro football,
On a team owned by Helen Franklin and Janice Hinshaw.
But enough of New York. Let's go to see Jo Ann Marion and Edna Lineback,
And from their company we can hire a "hack."
We find that driver Jimmy Waddell,
Can whiz in and out of traffic very well.
He will take us to the Rachel Foster Airlines, where we will hasten,
To the captial of N. C., which is now Ogburn Station.
The plane, piloted by Carl Winfrey, is very fast and after several weeks,
We arrive and are met by Mayor Doug Speaks,
Who leaves his wife "Lib,
At home looking after their seven kids and the new one, not yet out of the crib.
There is also a night club here. It is called the "Black Kitty."
After asking we find the owners are Mary Lou Bowers and Orine Priddy.
The next stop on our list is the "Ogburn Station Howler."
The largest newspaper in town, it is owned by Sylvia Fowler.
Her business manager is Patsy Hill, who hires
The employees Doris Jackson, Shirley Fulk and Sara Styers.
The reporter on love affairs, we find, is Betty Merritt,
Who says, "If you have love trouble, bring it to Merritt, don't bury it."
Close by is the hospital, owned by Raymond Gosnell.

With doctors Harold Fletcher and Garland Crews to make you well.
 The nurses are Joyce Anderson, Doris Ingram Tuttle, and Edith Frye,
 With their purpose to make you young and spry.
 We find the population of Ogburn Station is larger.
 The reason for this is the 18 kids of Jerry Barger.
 And our dear old "Alma Mater" we find isn't glum,
 For principal Ronnie Swartzel is doing a good job, even though the kids are dumb.
 His assistant, Barbara Welch, says "Everything is under control,
 And for once we aren't even in the hole."
 Here are Jo Ann Atkins, Barbara Bowman and Carol White,
 Trying to teach the kids to read and write.
 Near the school is a company called the "Dainty Painty,"
 A firm which is owned by Joyce Maney.
 The chief painter for this company is Gray Spillman,
 Among the best of guildmen.
 Jim Thompson, the millionaire, loaded with dough,
 Has just returned from a big game hunt in the Congo.
 Trouble has just arisen over our machine, and not having a car we must rent it,
 From the great business man L. C. Bennett.
 The car which we get is designed by artist Roger Floyd.
 Our entry into the country was, they say, void.
 So we get the famous lawyer Roger Hayes,
 Who says, "To beat this case there are many ways."
 The honorable Judge Leroy Charles Hutchins tries us in his court.
 They find we are right but say we must have a passport.
 So we go to the Immigration Board, whose secretary is Dee Wiles,
 She gives a passport and then our names she files.
 "But your entry," she says, "is not legal until a week,
 Unless you want to see the head of the department, who is Wilma Sheek."
 We decide not to and then head this time for far-away Iran.
 Here the ambassador is Sue Spillman.
 We now travel to the arctic and land in Nome,
 Where we find the pioneer housewife Ann Waggoner's home.
 As we return on our home-ward flight,
 Who should we find but airline hostess Barbara Wright.
 She is working for the Bonnie Shaffer and Eva Joyce airline concern,
 Whose business manager is Jimmy Dezarn.
 Also aboard is Nancy Snyder,
 The wife of that champion fighter.
 As our plane lands at the Ruth DeHart Airport in France,
 The American Ambassador meets us; whom we know at a glance
 Is none other than Nancy West.
 We are now tired and need some rest,
 So we go to Annie Taylor and Jo Ann Tesh's Hotel,
 Where we find the accommodations are swell.
 On our return we take a voyage on an atomic ship,
 With Wayne Whitaker as captain for this trip.
 The ship is owned by the Jewel Williams Co-operation,
 A company dealing mostly in importations.
 We would probably hit a reef,
 If it wasn't for the operator of the radar, who, who is Nancy Heath.
 Let us now end our journey by going to the "Greatest Show on Earth,"
 Where owners Martha Williams and Betty Shumate assure us of our money's worth.
 The feature attraction is Shirley Fan Easter, the fan-fan queen,
 Who causes quite a commotion when she steps from behind her screen.
 The performers include Kay Laymon, Betty Bowman, and Norma Robertson.
 There is always much applause when their acts are done.
 Doris Davis, Carol Absher and Peggy Craft have even been to France
 With their very famous dance.
 The high wire star is Sarah Furches, who performs among the clouds,
 For thousands and thousands of crowds.
 Now let us wish that all of these hopes and aims,
 Shall come true———Yours truly, Gene James.

CLASS HISTORY

With mixed emotions, we, the confused sub-freshmen, entered a new era of life in October, 1948. In a day we had moved from tumbled down barracks to a beautiful new institution of learning. A proud group of kids we were, to know that we would be the first to begin our high school education in the new building.

It was during this muddled year that Kenneth Walker was killed in a car wreck. I remember how most of us walked to Mt. Pleasant Church for his funeral.

All too soon the school year and summer vacation were over and we were faced with the sad plight of being freshmen. Officers elected for the year were: Norman Plemmons, President; J. W. Plemmons, Vice-President; Shirley Easter, Secretary; and Ronnie Swartzel, Treasurer.

Without much ado the year ended and we became the "wise but foolish" sophomores. Living up to the tradition, we began to blossom out. Beginning to feel the urge of sports, many of the boys drifted into that field.

Wanting a remembrance of our sophomore year, we planned a class party to be held in the lunchroom. It came off without a flaw, except that a few of us didn't make it.

We closed the year with a graduation—that is, watching the seniors graduating with rapt faces.

Ah, yes, after three months we were Juniors. We, the ones who sponsored the Junior-Senior, gave a Junior play, and "snuck" a talented few into the all-school play.

Remember "Aaron Slick From Punkin Crick" with Gene, Bettie, Bill, Sticks, Norma, Barbara, and the chorus girls? Yes, we were all there when old Aaron (Gene, that is) struck oil and became greatly involved.

This year, we, trying to be different, broke a precedent. Nerve us, we had a PROM. Floating in on pink clouds were the girls in their formals and the boys in suits and ties. Oh, didn't we have a lovely time! Like all other Junior classes, we got the feel of graduation when marshals and ushers were named. Leading in the Seniors were Barbara Welch, Jimmy Matthews, Barbara Bowman, Mary Lou Bowers, Ruth DeHart, Carl Winfrey, Edward Bean, and Nancy West Tuttle. Graduation ushered out a school year and in a short vacation.

Then . . . we were the dignified Seniors. Only we weren't so dignified as you would think. Neither was it peaches and cream.

Our first big thrill was football. All in one season we beat Hanes and landed ten husky football players on the Piedmont Bowl Team. Sharing the glory of Homecoming were attendants Carol White and Barbara Welch.

As the months dropped behind us, the Senior play and trips attracted our attention. And then, the big day, the last day—our graduation! Full realization of the life beyond us began to enter our brain. We were sorry to leave such a dear place but glad to further our education in jobs or higher learning.

Dear friends and teachers that we leave behind, seek out the few good things we did and remember them, forgetting all the other things. From the bottom of our hearts we thank you for helping us to make our high school career a success!

BARBARA WELCH.

Class

Poem

FAREWELL, ALMA MATER

Through our high school life so fair
Our kind teachers have been there;
Eighth grade, ninth grade, tenth grade, too
They have been with all of you.

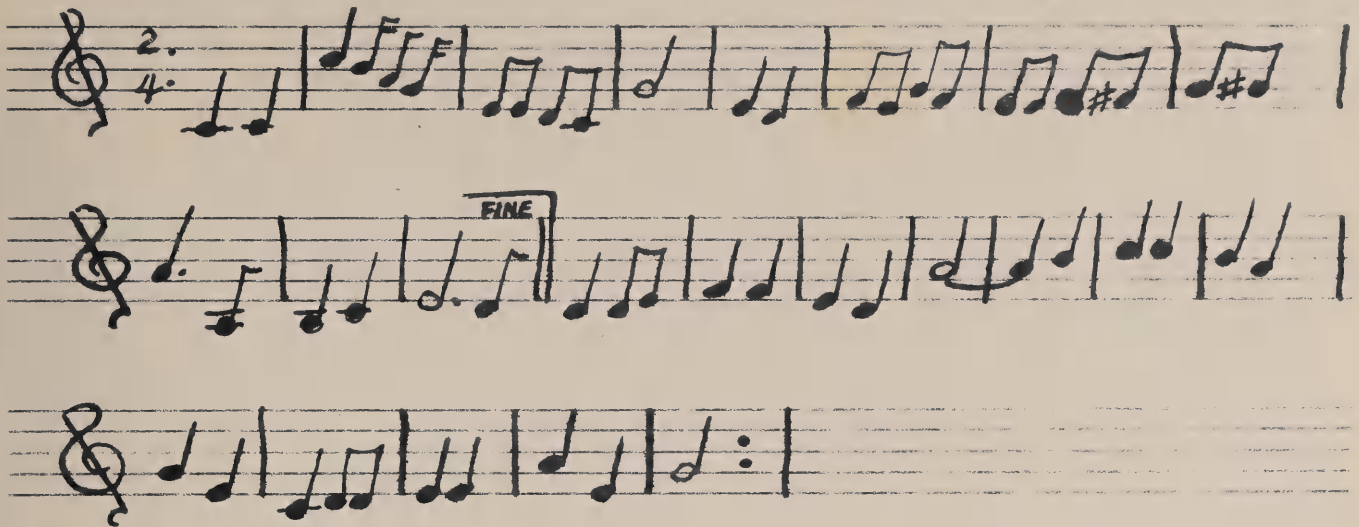

Principals, teachers, classmates, all,
In the class and in the hall;
At the games and at our dances
Through the crowd each symbol prances.

All our school life they have been
Inspiration now and then;
Though the years may come and go,
These our symbols we'll all know.

When back on these years you glance,
Will you think of us perchance;
Laughing, clowning, climbing, too
The seniors who brought these years to you?

PEGGY HOSKINS

Class Song of 1953

This is our High School, its colors green and white.

As we leave this High School to begin the fight for life and peace eternally and to pace the road ahead,

We ask for guidance from above in the way we're to be led.

Now we give our thanks to you, the teachers of this cast, for your kindnesses and patience in the past, for all our times together here. Oh, how they'll last
In memories of years gone by. My, they went so fast.

Now we dedicate to you—all the rising seniors here . . .

All the halls and all the classrooms we've trod for our last year.

And you to be in the eleventh grade, the tenth, the ninth, the eighth,
Have no fear but always faith in this faculty and school so dear!

—PAT MATTHEWS

LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT

We, the Senior Class of nineteen hundred and fifty-three, realizing that our school career has finally come to a close, leave our thanks and appreciation to the faculty for their kind words, devotion, and understanding. We leave our everlasting friendship and admiration to our senior sponsors, Mrs. Thomas, Mr. Dyer, and Mr. Hutchinson.

To the following students we leave our sentimental possessions:

We, Sharon Allen and Jerry Barger, leave a bed to the school. It seems we had trouble resting in school.

I, Barbara Welch, will a few inches of my hair to Delphia Love, who seems to need it.

I, Jim Matthews, leave to Jim Davis my ability to get dates broken.

I, Betty Merritt, will my silly giggle to Janice Caudle, since she never laughs.

I, Don Larimore, leave my muscle bound physique to Harold Arnold.

I, Doris Tuttle, will my ability to tell jokes to Helen Settle, who doesn't know any.

I, Reitzel Snider, will to my brother, Jennings, my little black date book.

I, JoAnn West, will my manuel on "How to Reduce in Ten Easy Lessons" to Nancy Davis.

We, Don Shamel, Bill Bailey, and Roger Floyd, leave our "kat" clothes to Jackie Chambers, Ivan Whiteheart, and Jimmy Crews.

I, Ronnie Easter, leave JoAnn trailing around in the halls. Hands off, boys!

I, Wilma Sheek, leave my basketball suit to Tony Davis, even if he can't wear it.

I, Jim Doss, leave my position as captain of the football team to Jim Inabinet and Bill Newman.

I, Bettie Lester, just leave.

I, Garland Crews, will by ability to speedily wait on cars at the Dine-In to Allen Mabe.

I, Jimmy Thompson, leave my ability to make Mrs. Thomas laugh to Bill Brown.

We, Pat Page, Sara Robinson, Eva Joyce, Kay Laymon, Mary Mecum, Wilma Moore, and Peggy Swink, leave our ability to catch a man and hold him.

I, Patsy Hill, leave my love for Mrs. Thomas and Miss Langley and my position on the annual staff to Lucille Barkley.

I, Cecil Walker, leave my car to the school so that all the girls will have a way to go off.

I, Shirley Easter, will my lost fountain pens and red lead pencils in bookkeeping to Barbara Hinshaw.

I, Pat Matthews, leave my voice to Cedric Upchurch hoping he will add it to the vocal talent he already has.

I, Sara Furches, will my undying love for shorthand to whoever can take it at 120 words a minute.

I, Larry Hancock, leave my long haircuts to Bill Huls.

I, Dee Wiles, leave my art talent to Jean White.

We, Bill Davjs, Tommy Day, Jimmy Dezarn, Joe Carshall, and Gray Spillman, leave our earnest desire to graduate to next year's senior boys.

I, Peggy Long, will my cashmere sweaters to "Tootsie" Parker.

We, Nancy Stevenson, Nancy Tuttle, Ruth Bailey, and Peggy Hoskins, leave our wedding bands to go with all the diamonds the girls already have.

I, Gene Gray James, leave my journalism ability to Betty Brannock.

I, Mary Lewis Smith, will my careful driving to Phyllis Jeffries.

I, Ronnie Rau, leave my position as manager of the football team to Jimmy Boyles.

We, Betty Bowman, Peggy Dymott, Joyce Maney, and Shirley Puckett, leave to anyone a chance to sneak off to Lexington Barbecue every day.

We, "Sticks" Hutchins, Perry Turner, Jimmie Waddell, and Carl Winfrey, leave our excess height to Garry Hancock and Alivn Crews.

We hereby put our hand and seal.

The Mineral Springs chapter of the Key Club was chartered in 1948. The club's primary function is service to the school and community with emphasis placed on leadership and co-operation. Each year of Key Club activity has established it as one of the best clubs in the school. Because of its limited membership and worthwhile projects and the respect gained by them, it has become an honor club.

This year's club has completed one of the most successful years in Key Club history.

MINERAL SPRINGS FOOTBALL 1953

The BULLDOGS opened the "53" season with a brilliant victory over Hanes High School. Under the able leadership of Head Coach, James F. Malcolm, Mineral Springs combined a steady ground attack with a dazzling aerial offense to enjoy it's first winning season in five years.

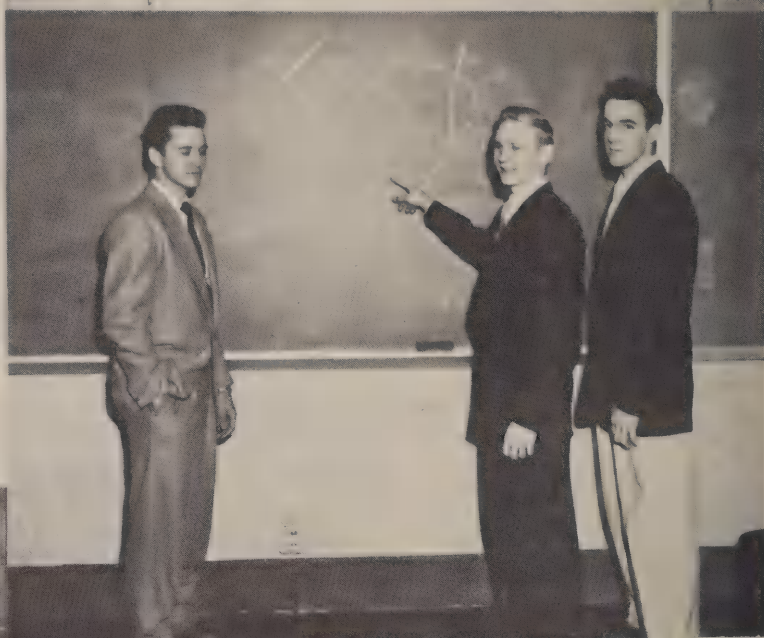

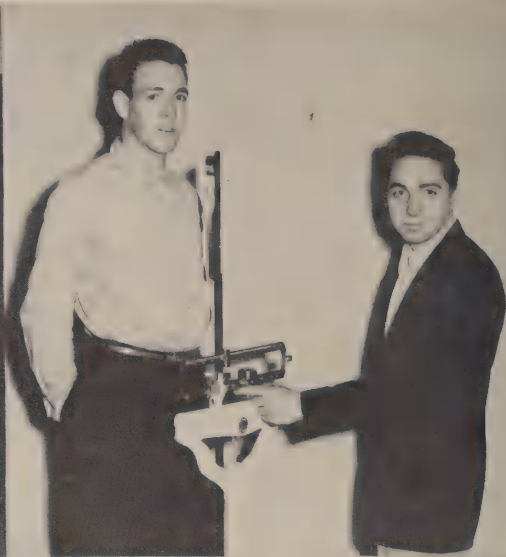

At the season's close Mineral Springs dominated a post season, Piedmont Bowl All-Star team, by placing ten players on the squad.

MINERAL SPRINGS BASKETBALL 1953

The Mineral Springs Bulldogs enjoyed a most successful season under the leadership of Coach Gray Cartwright. Mineral Springs took the County Championship for the first time in five years. In the AA tournament Mineral Springs advanced to the finals with wins over Reidsville and Hanes before dropping the conference championship to Tri-City. The Bulldogs closed the season with 20 wins, 4 losses.

Always remember the good times we've had. I'll always try to be your best neighbor and friend. Even though we had a big fuss at one time, we got over it. What would the world be like without fusses -
